

DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES

Department of HISTORY

2025-2026

1. Teachers' Day Celebration:

On 5 September 2025, the Department of History, in collaboration with other departments of Golaghat Purbanchalik College, actively participated in the celebration of Teachers' Day with great enthusiasm and respect. The programme was organized by the students of the Department of History to express their gratitude and appreciation towards their teachers for their invaluable contribution to education and character building.

The celebration commenced with a brief meeting in which the students highlighted the significance of Teachers' Day and acknowledged the dedication and commitment of the faculty members. As a mark of respect, the students felicitated the teachers by presenting traditional Gamusa, bouquets, and tokens of appreciation. The faculty members, in turn, encouraged the students to uphold the values of discipline, sincerity, and lifelong learning. The programme provided an excellent platform for strengthening the bond between teachers and students while also promoting the peer mentoring culture within the department.

2 . Dr. Bhupen Hazarika Birth Anniversary Observation and Best Student Award Distribution Ceremony: (9th September, 2025)

On 9th September, 2025, The Department of History, Golaghat Purbanchalik College, solemnly observed the birth anniversary of the legendary cultural icon Dr. Bhupen Hazarika on 9 September 2025. The programme was organized to pay tribute to his remarkable contributions to Assamese culture, literature, music, and the spirit of humanity. The occasion also served as a platform to inspire students to uphold the values of excellence, creativity, and social responsibility that Dr. Hazarika embodied.

The programme was graced by Dr. Anjan Saikia, Principal of Cinnamara College, as the Chief Guest. In his address, he highlighted the enduring legacy of Dr.

Bhupen Hazarika and encouraged students to pursue academic excellence while remaining committed to the cultural and social development of society.

As part of the programme, the Department organized the Best Student Award Distribution Ceremony. The prestigious “Kunteswari Saikia” Memorial Award, instituted by the principal, Dr Anjan Saikia ,in memory of his grandmother, was presented to the student securing the highest marks in the Department of History. For the academic session 2024–2025, Nabakanta Kotoki was honoured with the award in recognition of his outstanding academic achievement.

The programme was presided over by Dr Haren Hazarika, principal. Among the distinguished attendees were Dr Anjan Saikia, Principal , Cinnamara College, Dr. Mala Moni Goswami, Vice-Principal, along with faculty members, students, and invited guests. The event concluded with words of appreciation for the award recipient and a renewed commitment to fostering academic excellence and preserving the rich cultural heritage of Assam through such meaningful initiatives.

3 . Seva Parva : 2025 Ek ped Maa ke Nam: (17th September to 2 October),

The Department of History, Golaghat Purbanchalik College, actively participated in the Seva Parva – "Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam" campaign observed from 17 September to 2 October 2025, in collaboration with the other departments of the college. The programme was organized with great enthusiasm to promote environmental conservation, sustainability, and social responsibility among students.

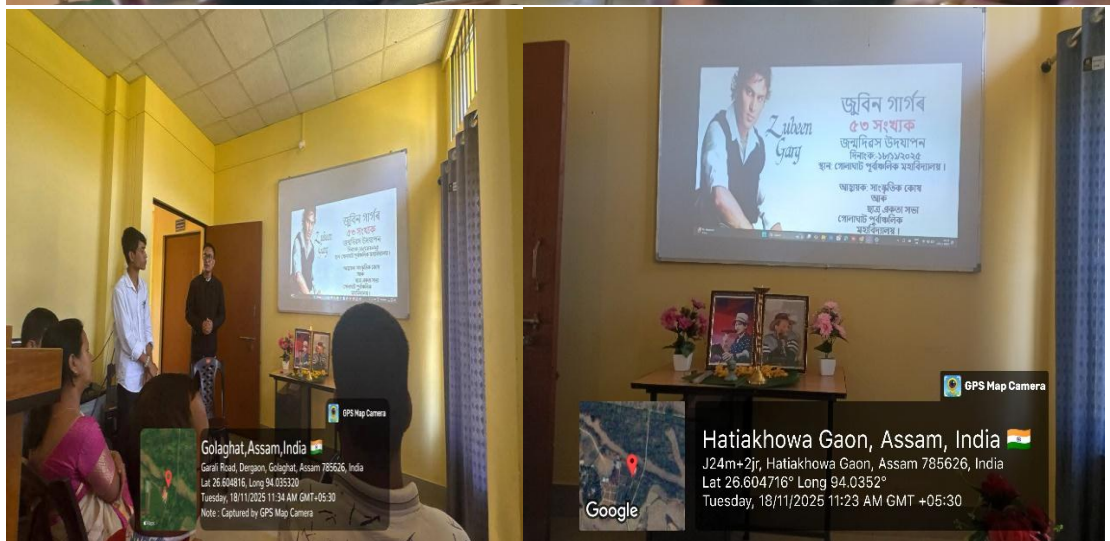

As part of the campaign, a plantation drive was conducted within the college campus. Faculty members, students of the Department of History, members of the Students' Union, and non-teaching staff enthusiastically participated in planting saplings and pledged to protect and nurture them. The activity highlighted the significance of tree plantation as a tribute to mothers while fostering environmental awareness and community participation.

The programme successfully instilled a sense of ecological responsibility, teamwork, and civic consciousness among the participants. It also strengthened the bond between teachers and students through their collective involvement in a meaningful environmental initiative, reflecting the institution's commitment to sustainable development and community engagement.

4 . Zubeen Birth Day: Zubeen Garg Birth Anniversary Celebration (18 November 2025)

On 18 November 2025, the Department of History, Golaghat Purbanchalik College, actively participated in the observance of the birth anniversary of the legendary Assamese musician and cultural icon, Zubeen Garg. As this was the first birth anniversary observed after his demise, the programme was conducted with deep respect and heartfelt remembrance.

The event brought together students and faculty members to pay tribute to the immense contribution of Zubeen Garg to Assamese music, culture, and society. Dr. Haren Hazarika, Principal, Dr. Malamoni Goswami, Vice-Principal, and Pranjal Saikia, IQAC Coordinator, addressed the gathering and highlighted his remarkable legacy, artistic excellence, and lasting influence on generations of people. The programme concluded with a collective tribute, inspiring students to cherish and preserve the rich cultural heritage of Assam.

5. Group Discussion on Syllabus-Related Topics (3rd and 5th Semester students):

The Department of History, Golaghat Purbanchalik College, organized a Group Discussion on 29 October 2025 for the students of the 3rd and 5th Semesters. The programme aimed to enhance students' understanding of syllabus-related topics through interactive discussion and collaborative learning. Students actively participated by sharing their views and engaging in meaningful academic discussions. Pranjal Saikia, Head of the Department, and Swaraj Kr. Das, Faculty Member, guided the students throughout the programme. The activity helped strengthen students' subject knowledge, critical thinking, communication skills, and confidence.